

Designed by Marshanda Smith

Northwestern University's Center for African American History presents:

1968 + 40:

The Black Student Movement at Northwestern and Its Legacy

October 31 & November 1, 2008
McCormick Tribune Center Forum
1870 Campus Drive, Evanston

Conference Schedule - Friday — October 31:

1:00 "Divorcing History" documentary on contemporary black experience at NU 2-425 Kresge
3:30 Opening Plenary: Black Studies Then and Now
5:00 Film "Northwestern 1968"
5:30 Angela Jackson reading from new novel
6:00 Reception

Conference Schedule - Saturday — November 1:

9:00 Forging a Path: Black History at Northwestern
9:45 From 'Just Us Three' to Black Power: The Black female student experience
11:30 Bursar Sit-In, May 1968
2:15 The Aftermath: Legacy of May 4th Agreement
3:40 Struggles in the 1970s and beyond: antiwar, anti-apartheid, women's rights
5:00 The Black Community Then and Now: Forging Links and Building a Legacy
6:15 Closing Reception